As a Certified Family Law Specialist, Candice Rogers combines her substantial knowledge of family law with empathy for her clients and practical solutions for even the most complex family law matters. Her abundant experience in the area of family law, including premarital agreements, postnuptial agreements, dissolution of marriage, property division, custody, child support, and spousal support, provides her clients with trusted legal counsel during difficult life events. Leveraging her trial background, Candice is well-respected for her client-centered and resolute advocacy.

Candice's compassion for others is demonstrated in her work with the community where she has served as a Board Member of Villa Esperanza Services and a Board Member of the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law.
