

Gail Reysa

Executive Director

✉ greysa@hahnlawyers.com

☎ 626.796.9123

Gail Reysa serves as Hahn & Hahn's Executive Director, overseeing all aspects of the firm's business operations and partnering closely with the Managing Partner and Executive Committee to execute strategic organizational goals.

Gail's prior experience includes leadership roles in law firm marketing, professional development, and administration, giving her a unique ability to integrate business strategy with operational execution. Her proven track record of driving innovation and efficiency positions Hahn & Hahn to best serve its clients in a rapidly evolving legal landscape.

Related Capabilities

Credentials

Education

Washington State University, Carson College of Business, MBA

UCLA Extension, Certificate in Project Management

University of Southern California, MPAS

The Evergreen State College, B.A.

Certifications

Project Management Professional, Project Management Institute

Certified Professional (SHRM-CP), Society for Human Resource Management

HAHN & HAHN LLP

“Law firm operations might seem dry from the outside; however, they’re anything but. For me, it’s about more than solving problems—it’s about understanding what drives them. That insight allows us to build a culture focused on innovation and what’s next for our clients, our people, and the profession.”

Gail Reysa
Executive Director

Community Involvement

Professional Organizations

Society for Human Resource Management
Certified Professional (SHRM-CP), 2021–present

Project Management Institute
Project Management Professional (PMP), 2018–present

Association of Legal Administrators
Member, 2017–present

Charitable Organizations

Pasadena High School
Advisory Board Member, Law and Public Service Academy, 2022–present
Vice Chair, 2024–present